Michigan Meetings & Events Network, LLC

Have you ever wanted to get in front of hundreds of potential buyers.... in a single day?

If yes, well then, mark your calendar now for Tuesday, September 29, 2009 9AM-9PM for the “New Trends and Solution” Expo, being presented by Michigan Meetings and Events Network and Michigan Meetings and Events Magazine.

This Expo is going to be “the special event Expo” for all of Michigan! With trade show booths showcasing the talents, supplies and creativity of the “crème de la crème” of those in the special events industry, educational sessions throughout the day, a Nationally renown keynote speaker at the luncheon and finishing off the day with a “tasting of Michigan” by some of the best creative chefs in the state.

This Expo is going to be the “one event that you can’t afford to miss” for the entire year!

Trade Show Booth space is currently available, but we only have a limited number of spaces (and product categories) available.

Visit our website, <http://michiganmeetingsandeventsnetwork.com/tickets.html>, for pricing information, as well additional information on the entire Expo.

Our Keynote Speaker

LAURA SCHWARTZ

BIOGRAPHY

Thousands of Americans wanted to tell President Clinton what to do everyday, Laura Schwartz did.

Laura Schwartz, The White House Director of Events for the Clinton Administration, created and executed more than 600 White House Events including 12 State Arrival Ceremonies and Dinners, America's Millennium Celebration, The UN Millennium Summit and NATO's 50th Anniversary. While producing the President on the world stage every day, leaving no room for error, Laura demonstrated the Presidency's ability to inspire a nation and the world through powerful events. Prior to being named The Director of Events, Laura served as The White House Director of Television and The Midwest Press Secretary for the Administration.

Today, Laura is a national commentator on politics and its direct impact on the common citizen by defining the line between "Political Rhetoric and Everyday Reality" on the Fox News Channel. She discusses political strategy and the skill of our politicians in finding the right message for their intended audience. Laura promotes a politically responsible message to students as she presents her program "The Power of Your Political Voice" at colleges and universities around the country. She takes this same message to the airwaves in a weekly radio segment on the Good Life Radio Network heard around the country targeting minorities ages 18-34 in urban areas. She is concurrently working on her first political book "Inside the Ropeline"© which explores campaigns and elections from behind the scenes for publication in spring 2008.

Laura also serves as an advisor and executive coach to aspiring entrepreneurs, young and established corporations, political figures, cultural institutions and service organizations. She uses her unique experiences, message and event strategies to generate ideas to develop and deliver her client's objectives through business, social and media events and materials. Laura provides a positive and motivational message to these groups as she presents her lecture series based on event, media and message strategy and the development of public and private events. Laura's most popular seminar, "The Networking Power of Social Events"© also the title of Laura's upcoming networking book, explores professional and non-professional social scenes and the overlooked opportunities as a guest, and host, at any event to land an incredible job, meet a mate, increase your client base, professional and personal profitability and success. Laura takes this same message to the readers of the acclaimed Chicago magazine Today's Chicago Woman in her series titled "Eat, Drink and Get Mary a Job!"

You can read more about Laura by going to her web page at <http://www.whitehousestrategies.com/201.html>

Welcome...Our General Session Speaker 5PM

Michael Roman, President

catersource, Chicago, IL
www.catersource.com

Michael Roman has become the nation's leading educator for the "art" and "science" of catering. Besides having over fifteen years of "hands-on" experience managing his family's catering business in Chicago, Mike is also a college level instructor with a Masters Degree in Education. He also taught catering at the Culinary Institute of America for sixteen years in their continuing education department.

While a caterer, Mike produced everything from simple box lunches to corporate galas serving thousands. In 1986, after the family catering business was sold, Mike began to teach and consult on a full-time basis. Mike has assisted some of the nation's largest hospitality businesses as well as hundreds of entrepreneurial catering businesses to accelerate their catering successes! Mike's greatest strength is to teach proven, useful and daring skills to existing sales teams.
